WEATHER PROBABILITIES.—For this section fair and warmer tonight. Friday fair, fresh north to northeast winds.

Another Shooting Case.

George Bair's saloon, northwest corner of Cameron and Fayette streets, was the scene of another shooting about nine o'clock last night, and as a result Edward D. Clinton received a ball in the mouth which shattered his jawbone and knocked out several teeth, and Webb Miller a wound in the left arm. The shooting was done by a copper-colored negro named John Williams, who hails from Columbia, S. C. Lieutenant Smith and Officers Beach and Lyles soon appeared on the scene and captured Williams. The case came before Justice Caton in the Police Court this morning but the testimony was meagre, another chapter evidently having been suppressed. According to the witnesses the trouble occurred in the western end of the saloon between Williams and Clinton, when the former left the saloon, but soon returned and drawing a pistol shot Clinton, the ball passing out of the latter's mouth and lodging in Miller's left forearm. Williams reloaded the pistol and after snapping it several times at different people ran out of the saloon. Williams in his statement said he entered the place and seeing there a young colored woman named Carrie Evans, asked her for a picture. Clinton resented his advance toward the woman and signified his displeasure. Angry words followed when Clinton, Williams alleged, called him a vile name. He left the rear of the saloon, but soon returned and having reason to believe Clinton was about to assault him he drew his pistol and fired. Williams said white men resented such insulting language and he had the right to do the same. Williams after leaving the saloon started north and half an hour later was captured by the officers named. Williams had his case continued until tomorrow. There have been several shooting affairs in Bair's saloon recently in all of which negroes figured. Charles Jones, alias Shirley, was shot and killed by Enoch Grayson in that place last fall. A row, it is said, occurred in this saloon on Tuesday between two young colored men named Stephens and Berden which came near resulting seriously, as a knife was drawn by one of the combatants.

The increasing number of murders and attempts at murder which have occurred in Alexandria in less than a year, in all of which negroes were concerned, should call attention to the fact that a large percentage of this race carry concealed weapons. In fact many darkeys imagine when they receive a month's pay that a pistol should be one of the first things purchased. The use of cocaine and carrying of concealed weapons have long since produced their natural effect among negroes.

Personal.

Mr. Paul Kester entertained this week Miss Julia Marlowe and a party of friends at his home, "Woodlawn Mansion," in lower Fairfax county. Miss Marlowe has just closed a week's engagement in Washington, where Mr. Kester's dramatization of "When Knighthood Was in Flower" has been played by her to full houses. Among Mr. Kester's guests were also Miss Gwendolyn Valentine, a niece of Miss Marlowe, and Miss Adelaide Alexander, whose former home was "Gunston Hall," near by, and who has many friends in this neighborhood.

Mr. Frank Gibbs of lower Fairfax left Saturday for Pine Ridge agency, in South Dakota, where he has been engaged by the government to teach the Indians. Mr. Gibbs's family will join him in the autumn.

Mr. L. E. Gannon, of Washington, and Miss Virginia Walton, of Baltimore, were married on Wednesday last week and are now in Atlantic City on a bridal tour. Mr. Gannon is one of the best-known figures in musical circles in Washington and has frequently sung in St. Mary's church choir in this city.

Jud-e Norton has returned from his farm in lower Fairfax county where he spent the past week.

Police Court.

[Justice H. B. Caton presiding.]

The following cases were disposed of this morning:

Edward Miller, colored, arrested by Officer Knight charged with forgery, was dismissed. Miller was charged with collecting money belonging to a fellow-seinehauler. The man who paid the money testified that the defendant was innocent.

John Williams, colored, arrested by Lieutenant Smith and Officers Beach and Lyles charged with shooting E. D. Clinton and Webb Miller, also colored, was held for a further examination.

A white man arrested by Officer Lyles for being drunk in the street was dismissed with a reprimand.

A dealer in second-hand goods who had purchased a stolen clock and sold it to a man who had in turn sold it to a colored woman for $1.50 was made to return the timepiece to its owner and reimburse the woman who had bought it.

Virginia Firemen's Association.

The many friends in this city of Captain John H. Trimyer, of Alexandria, president of the Virginia State Firemen's Association, whose ill health caused his temporary removal from Alexandria to Asheville, N. C., for recuperation, will be pleased to learn that the genial captain is improving. The city of Alexandria, which will be the scene of the eighteenth annual convention of the Virginia State Firemen's Association, is making elaborate preparations for the reception of the fire laddies in August next. The city promises the firemen the greatest time of their lives. Local firemen are considerably interested in the next convention of the association, and Portsmouth will, in all probability, be largely represented in Alexandria in August. (Norfolk Landmark.)

The Free Kindergarten.

As has been stated, the Alexandria Free Kindergarten Association will hold its annual public meeting tonight at 8 o'clock at Lee Camp Hall. An interesting programme of exercises has been prepared. A cordial invitation is extended to the public, and all who attend are assured an interesting evening's entertainment.

Chesapeake Presbytery.

This body, now in session in the Second Presbyterian Church of this city, held a sacramental meeting last night, when the Lord's Supper was administered. Rev. H. W. Pratt, of Washington, preached a clear, forceful sermon and Rev. S. S. Laws, D. D., L. L. D., of Washington, and Rev. J. W. Lupton, D. D., of Leesburg, administered the sacrament. The congregation was deeply impressed with the solemn services.

This morning the following commissioners were elected to represent this Presbytery at the meeting of the General Assembly to meet in Mobile, Ala., May 19 next: Rev. Geo. M. M. Matthis and Mr. Chas. P. Janney, principals, and Rev. C. W. Hollis and Mr. E. H. Cumpston, alternates.

A memorial service was held at 11 o'clock this morning when memorials were read of the late Rev. Walter H. Robertson, late pastor at Warrenton, and the late Rev. Henry C. Slaymaker, of Alexandria, who was drowned in the Congo river.

The home mission work occupied most of this morning.

Presbytery adjourned to meet at Greenwich, Prince William county, September 20 next.

There will be no services in the Second Church tonight.

Returned Clock to Owner.

Among the matters brought before Justice Caton this morning were the facts in connection with the theft of a clock from the residence of a lady in the Second ward. As soon as the timepiece was missed (February 24) the lady reported the matter to the police, but it was only yesterday that Officers Knight and Beach succeeded in locating it in the house of a colored woman who had purchased it from Henry Wrenn, a dealer in second-hand articles, whose place of business is near the Stone Bridge. The evidence showed that the clock had been taken from the owner's home by a man who has since died and sold to a second-hand dealer named Simpson, who at the time conducted business on the northeast corner of Cameron and Fairfax streets. The latter had sold it to Wrenn from whom the colored woman had purchased it for $1.50. Justice Caton returned the clock to its owner and required Simpson to reimburse the colored woman. The justice told the dealer that he should in future keep the names of the persons from whom he buys goods in a book, so that in case he purchased stolen property the parties who dispose of it can be identified.

The Weather.

The weather was cold again last night, and the temperature this morning was like unto that of winter. The keen northwest wind of the past forty-eight hours has reproduced, in a measure, scenes which prevailed a month ago. The tide in the river was extremely low, the water having been blown out of some docks, the coves and creeks, while the mud banks of the flats on the opposite side of the river were visible from a point near Shepherd's almost to Fort Foote. Hundreds of gulls settled on these strips of mud, awaiting a change in conditions in order to begin "fishing" operations. Later in the day the temperature became much warmer.

Golf Card Party.

The senior members of the Alexandria Golf Club gave a beautiful euchre party at the golf house on the links on Shooter's Hill last night. The attendance was large and a most enjoyable evening was spent by all present. The patronesses were Mrs. Henry F. Robertson, Mrs. Louis Greene, Mrs. Hugh McGuire, Mrs. Emmett Dunn and Mrs. James Reid, and the pretty prizes were won by Mrs. E. C. Dunn, Mrs. T. Marshall Jones, Mrs. H. F. Robertson, Miss Alice Lyons, Mr. E. B. Taylor, Mr. G. C. Hendrickson, Mr. James Douglass and Mr. Mahlon Janney.

Eye Removed.

Machinist Pepper, who was seriously injured by a colored man named Arthur McClure, at the Southern Railway shops about two weeks ago, is still said to be in a serious condition, and McClure is being held to await the outcome. One of Mr. Pepper's eyes was badly injured, so much so that on Tuesday it was found necessary to remove it. The operation was performed by Drs. Greene, Delaney and McGuire. He has been in the Alexandria Hospital since the assault.

More Prizes.

Mr. Courtland H. Smith, of Alexandria, won in two classes yesterday at the Boston Horse Show. In the class for qualified hunters, carrying 165 pounds to hounds, his bay gelding Up-To-Date, ridden by Mr. Smith, was given second to Mrs. Courtland Smith's first, with the brown gelding Chippie Lee. In the heavy-weight hunters, carrying 190 pounds or over, Mr. Smith's black gelding Equitable, ridden by Golings, received third prize.

Death of Mr. Barker.

Mr. Harry S. Barker, who has been critically ill at his home on south Columbus street, during the past few days, died this afternoon. The deceased had been a sufferer from Bright's disease. He was a son of the late H. S. W. Barker, and at one time was engaged in the grocery business in this city. He had recently held a position in the War Department in Washington. Mr. Barker leaves a widow.

Death of Old Resident.

Joseph Lawson, an old resident, died at his home, 1121 Queen street, about 3 o'clock this morning. The deceased was 70 years old. He was a native of Loudoun county. Mr. Lawson leaves a widow and one son.

Congressional Committee.

A meeting of the democratic committee of the Eighth Congressional district will be held at Mr. Gardner L. Boothe's office, in this city, on Saturday afternoon at 2 o'clock, to fix a date for the primary election.

LOCAL BREVITIES.

A fine horse belonging to Mr. William Sisson died last night.

The City Council meets tonight to consider the question of a redivision of the ward lines.

Conditions at Fishtown this morning had undergone no material change from those of yesterday.

Messrs. Brenner & Knight, contractors, will erect two large ventilators at the Belle Pre glass works.

Edward, the little son of Mr. Ernest Padgett, is suffering from appendicitis at the home of his parents on south Fairfax street.

The electric train which left Washington for this city at 7:50 this morning ran off the track at Payne street in this city. The step of the trailer was damaged by the accident.

Marriage licenses were issued in Washington yesterday to Thomas E. Taylor and Phoebe Malonaughey, both of Prince William county, and to Rezin S. Donaldson and Amy L. Ferguson, of Fairfax county.

There was no meeting of the Board of Police Commissioners last night, no quorum appearing. Mayor Simpson and Commissioner Graham were the only members present. There was no business of importance to transact.

The schooner Beulahland, in tow of the tugboat Spray, went ashore yesterday morning on the Maryland flats, opposite Jones's Point. The tugboat in endeavoring to pull the schooner off also went ashore. Later the tug was floated and last night the schooner was pulled off when it proceeded to Washington.

As was stated in the Gazette, A. J. Payne, a game warden of Fairfax county, was arrested in this city yesterday by Officer Ferguson at the request of Constable Hearst, of Fairfax, who charged him with taking possession of a horse which had been attached by due process of law. The matter was compromised later upon Payne paying $12.50.

The Landon Monotype Machine Company held its annual meeting in this city today and elected a board of directors.

Weddings.

Archibald Douglas Dabney, a recent graduate in law of the University of Virginia and a member of the Albemarle bar, and Miss Lillian Wilkinson Fink-houser, daughter of the late Tilden Fink-houser, of St. Louis, Mo., were married last night at Christ Protestant Episcopal Church Charlottesville, by Rev. Harry B. Lee of the University of Virginia.

Miss Mary Elizabeth Reynolds, daughter of Dr. and Mrs. George B. Reynolds, and Mr. Charles Watson Meade, city editor of the New York Tribune were married in Baltimore last night. The groom is a son of the late Rev. Philip Nelson Meade and a great-grandson of the late Bishop Meade of Virginia. The ceremony was performed at 7 o'clock at Grace Protestant Episcopal Church, officiated, and Rev. E. W. Meade, rector of Poplar Church, Virginia, pronounced the benediction.

Makes a Clean Sweep.
